World Book Day

Dear Parents and Carers,

This year World Book Day falls on Thursday 5th March.

We would like all children to come to school on this day in their pyjamas, as they will be enjoying our annual 'bedtime story' with their buddy classes.

We would also love each child to complete one of the following:

- Take a photograph of themselves reading in their favourite place (this could be at home, in the garden, at the park, in a cosy corner or anywhere they enjoy reading)
- Film a short video of themselves reading an extract from one of their favourite books
- Film a short video of themselves reading to someone else (it could be a sibling, pet or family member)

We would love you to share these with us via our reading email address reading@hazelburyprimary.org. There will be a show and tell in each class to share these with their teacher and friends so please make sure the subject of the email contains your child's name and class.

The aim is to celebrate reading for pleasure and to share the many wonderful ways and places that children enjoy books. Please ensure that any videos are kept short (no longer than 1–2 minutes) and that photographs or recordings are appropriate for sharing within school.

Over the next few weeks, there will be lots of exciting visits and activities for our children across the school to celebrate World Book Day – keep an eye on our social media to see what we have been doing.

If you have any books that your children no longer read, please donate them to us via the school office so others can enjoy them too.

Just a reminder that our Scholastic bookfair is also visiting this week and your children will all receive their £1 World Book Day voucher, which they can spend here should you wish.

Many Thanks
Mel Bowman
